

BEUTINGER MURDER CASE GOES TO JURY

Both Sides Rest, State Offering No Rebuttal—Washington Testifies.

NEWARK, N. J., Oct. 27.—The fate of Mrs. Margaret Claire Beutinger, on trial on the charge of murdering her husband, Christopher Beutinger, wealthy coal broker, rests with a jury.

Both sides rested shortly after 11 o'clock this morning, the State offering no rebuttal. A verdict is expected before nightfall. And attorneys for the young and beautiful widow are confident it will be acquittal.

Admission by the court of evidence of John H. Debus, of Washington, today was considered a striking victory for the defense.

Debus testified that Beutinger had asked him in Washington to make affidavit that he had found Mrs. Beutinger in a compromising position while on the way to the Philippines. He said he had refused.

Anna Gasco, a fifteen-year-old Australian servant girl, told of advances made toward her by Beutinger while she was employed in the Beutinger household.

She also declared she had heard angry threats by Beutinger to kill his wife after she had told Mrs. Beutinger of the occurrence.

Declaring in case, if it were not such a great tragedy, would be the greatest romance ever heard, Mr. McDaniels argued for the defense.

McDaniels drew a picture of Mrs. Beutinger's life with the man she killed, and Mrs. Beutinger sobbed aloud as the lawyer told of the joys of the young couple shortly after their marriage, and their travels afterward.

He pictured the change Mrs. Beutinger found in the man with whom she had agreed to live.

MISSION UNION TO HEARS MRS. MONROE

Interdenominational Body Will Open Winter Activities.

"The Protestant Mission Epoch" is the subject announced for an address this afternoon by Mrs. H. E. Monroe, of the Lutheran Church, before the first fall meeting of the Women's Interdenominational Mission Union, to be held this afternoon in the Public Library.

The vice president of the organization, Mrs. Ellis Logan, will preside at the meeting this afternoon. The text book used will be "World's Missions and World Peace."

At the next meeting of the union, Mrs. Monroe has been asked to speak. She will take for her address "The Story of the Reformation." This meeting will be held November 1.

The quadricentennial of the reformation will be celebrated in 1917. The union has named a committee on co-operation. The names of the members of the committee follow:

Mrs. Henry Anstadt, of Luther Place Memorial Church, chairman; Mrs. A. A. Birney, Mrs. W. Crafts, Mrs. Fred Beall, Mrs. Ellis Logan, Mrs. H. E. Monroe, Mrs. J. T. Huddle, Mrs. S. T. Nicholas, Mrs. Paul Menel, Mrs. I. O. Baker, Mrs. Hanoch Schroeder, Mrs. C. H. Butler, Mrs. John Weidley, Mrs. Charles Steek, Mrs. Richard Schmidt, Mrs. J. P. Wenche, Mrs. A. Wade, Mrs. L. H. Waring, Mrs. J. E. A. Doerr, Mrs. Paul Dunbar and Miss Clara Nelson. Representing the women's missionary societies of the Lutheran church: Mrs. Elsie Singmaster Lewars, Mrs. J. P. Krechling, Miss Sallie M. Frotsman and Mrs. C. P. Wiles.

EYE, EAR, AND THROAT HOSPITAL ASKS AID

Donation Day Tomorrow Will Assist Episcopal Institution.

Tomorrow will be donation day at the Episcopal Eye, Ear and Throat Hospital.

Contributors of foodstuffs and household articles will be received from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m. by members of the board of lady managers, who will be at the hospital, 1147 Fifteenth street, and will show visitors through the building.

Donation day is an annual event at the hospital, and in the past great assistance has been rendered the hospital in this way.

While the institution is supported by the Episcopal churches in the diocese of Washington, it is non-sectarian, and treats all who apply, irrespective of creed or color. More than 3,000 free treatments were given during the past year, according to the report of the board.

Sunday, October 29, has been designated by the bishop of Washington as "Hospital Sunday," and special collections will be taken in all Episcopal churches in the District for the maintenance of the institution.

Masons Stage a Mock Initiation for Wives

The wives of the members of New Jerusalem Lodge, No. 9, F. A. A. M., are convinced there is no particular mystery about the initiation of a person into the "secrets" of the Masonic order for the reason that, as guests of the lodge, they think they saw a woman "initiated" last night.

The members of the lodge staged a mock initiation of one of their women guests as the chief feature of the "ladies' night" entertainment. Roger J. Whitesford, junior warden of the lodge, was in charge of the affair and led the Goldsmith and Charles Stevens conducted the "initiation."

In addition to the chief feature of the program a series of musical numbers was provided by the mixed quartet of St. Andrew's Church and Arthur Pierce.

Knights of King Arthur Hold All-Day Session

An all-day conference of various chapters or castles of the Knights of King Arthur is to be held today at the Y. M. C. A. to discuss the purpose and ideals of the organization.

The morning session was devoted to becoming acquainted. At 3:30, William E. McMillan, marquis of the Diminutor of the estate of their mother, Mrs. Anna M. Hopkins.

Mrs. Hopkins died October 21 without leaving a will. Her children advise the Probate Court that they are the sole heirs-at-law to the estate, which is valued at $46,000.15, divided as follows: Stocks, $33,344; bonds, $10,756; and cash, $1,900.15.

Administrator Named For Hopkins Estate

On the petition of Mrs. Katharine V. W. Wylie, William Hopkins, and James H. Hopkins, Justice Stafford, in Probate Court, has named the American Security and Trust Company administrator of the estate of their mother, Mrs. Anna M. Hopkins.

D. C. Soldiers Broke; See Night Life in Camp

Great Bivouac Presents Picturesque and Poetic Scene in Southern Moonlight and Sends Romantic Memories Flying With Repetition of Each Silvery Bugle Call.

CAMP WILSON, SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Oct. 23 (By mail). Now that they are broke and have to remain in camp because of lack of funds with which to visit San Antonio, the District militiamen are beginning to appreciate the beauties and fascination of Camp Wilson at night.

For the first two weeks they were here they could hardly wait for nightfall to come so they could hurry to the bright lights of Houston street, which is San Antonio's Broadway.

They lived high while their funds lasted, but from now until payday they will be compelled to stay in camp or walk five miles to the city. Most of them are unwilling to take the stroll, since they have no money to spend after walking the long distance.

Camp Wilson at night is one of the most interesting places to which the District boys have ever been assigned.

For several hours "Relax," or the evening roll call, the camp of 30,000 men awakes with activity and is a bedlam of noise, the soldiers rending the air with shouts of rejoicing that the day's work is done. About 9 o'clock the militiamen become more serious and go from tent to tent with lanterns in their hands paying visits or making plans for the coming day.

Tattoo at 9:30. At 9:30 "Tattoo," a long drawn out, soothing bugle call, is blown to notify the more boisterous soldiers that they must be quiet and allow the other militiamen to retire in peace. A very large percentage of the District soldiers "turn in" at "Tattoo," while a number of habitual guard runners still practice their profession.

Mess sergeants, cooks, and assistant mess sergeants retire at "Tattoo," as they are required to arise at 3:30 a. m. to prepare breakfast for the hungry hordes.

The first note of "Call to Quarters" is wafted over the camp at 10:15 o'clock. As one bugler finishes the rhythmic call another takes it up, or ten or fifteen minutes the bugle's blast can be heard, the strains being echoed and re-echoed over the broad, level expanse of the camp.

There are more than 100 organizations at Camp Wilson, and each of them has its bugler, who sounds all the calls during the day and night.

Immediately after "Call to Quarters" the rumble of modulated conversation can be heard as the soldiers swarm to their tents from the Y. M. C. A. buildings or from automobiles which have brought them back to camp.

Fifteen Minutes to Disrobe. Fifteen minutes is allowed the soldiers to disrobe and prepare for bed. And then "Taps" is sounded. This is the saddest and most impressive of bugle calls. All of the buglers "try themselves" on "Taps," and each note is as clear, ringing, and long-drawn-out as musical as they can make it. The

"I'll praise Drego the longest day I live," says Lady

Relieved of constipation, headaches, nervousness, gastritis, she adds her words of praise for Drego.

"Since taking Drego I feel fine," said Miss J. K. Ranke, of 2039 Wilkens Ave., Baltimore, recently.

"I suffered with stomach trouble in its worst form for years," she continued. "I was unable to eat any solid food at all on account of the weak condition of my stomach. Even the lightest of things disagreed with me, and after eating I would feel like a big lump had lodged in my chest, and nothing I could do would remove it. I would have awful attacks of indigestion, and it seemed like I could not live through one of these spells. Gas would gather about my heart and I would have smothering spells and could hardly breathe. Then my nerves would give away, my muscles would draw up, and I would have a general collapse. I was so nervous I could not bear the least unusual noise, and couldn't get any rest or sound sleep at all. I was so weak from loss of flesh strength that least exertion would exhaust me completely, and when I wasn't down in bed I was too weak to properly see after my household duties. I had tried so long and used so many different medicines without getting any real benefit. I had almost despaired of getting anything that would help me."

"It certainly was a lucky day for me when I bought Drego. I began feeling better the first night, and since taking three bottles of the medicine I haven't a symptom of my troubles. I can eat most anything I want now and all I eat agrees with me. Those awful attacks of acute indigestion have stopped, and I have no more smothering spells or shortness of breath. I am not nervous now and can stand any kind of noise and my sleep and rest at night is fine. Yes, sir, I have gained in weight, and what I have gained in health and strength can't be measured. I am never troubled with constipation now. This is truly a wonderful medicine."

Drego is sold by all the O'Donnell Drug Stores. Allen's Drug Store in Alexandria, Burry's Drug Store in Anacostia.—Adv.

Big Demand for Ice Cream. San Antonio ice cream dealers are making a mint of money out of Camp Wilson. Every Sunday they deliver more than 800 gallons of ice cream to the various organizations. The District militiamen consume about 150 gallons. This refreshment is served on one or more days during the week.

The soldiers "chip in" to purchase the ice cream. When the company funds are running short the dealers extend credit until pay day.

Practically all the merchants in San Antonio allow the mess sergeants credit at their stores when it is requested, for the soldiers remember their business debts. As for remembering the friends who "let them out for a couple of bucks," well, a fellow cannot always be taxing his mind with such small matters.

To Address Hero Club. The life of John Wesley Powell, the first white man to make a successful trip through the Grand Canyon, will be discussed by F. E. Matthews at a meeting of the Hero Club of the Y. M. C. A., Sunday, at 3:45 at the association building.

FIELD HOSPITAL MEN WANT TO GO BACK

District Boys Ask to Be Transferred to Third Regiment From Retiring Unit.

Two members of the Field Hospital Corps, District No. 1, just returned from the Mexican border, like army life in the Southwest so much they have asked to be transferred to the Third Regiment, now in camp near San Antonio.

These soldiers, Herbert O'Garra and Joseph Amaras, probably will leave for their new assignment to the border in the twenty recruits for the District guard who entrain Monday.

The mustering out of the Federal service of the hospital corps will be completed tomorrow morning, according to officers. The physical examination of every man in the ranks has been finished, and the physicians pronounce the men in excellent condition.

The only detail of mustering out lacking at present is the paying off of the troops. This will be done tomorrow morning, if there is no delay.

The men are "signing the pay roll" today, cleaning up the armory, getting their "kit" pressed up in preparation of discharging the uniform tomorrow, and in general getting ready for the last ceremony in the mustering out process.

Call Out the Cooks. At 5 o'clock the guards make the rounds of the cooks' tents to awaken the culinary experts so the latter may begin their labors. The incinerator fires begin to burn brightly, and are fanned into high vaulting flames within a few moments after the cooks reach the kitchens and the smoke begins to curl from scores of stoves.

Just before dawn one bugler sounds first call for "Reveille," and as the others take up the call the noise is like that of a hundred crowing roosters in a barnyard. The entire bands of all the organizations then march up and down the regimental streets playing a lively air or a sentimental ballad set to march music. This is the soldier's alarm clock, and it never fails to awaken him.

The twenty members of the bugle corps with each organization next blow "Reveille," and the sound is very much like that of a thousand cackling hens.

A few moments later "Mess Call" is sounded, and loud cheers fill the air. Fifteen minutes after the bugle's alarm is heard, following this all the soldiers are turned out to police or clean up the camp. After a brief rest drilling and maneuvers begin.

Members of the District Bankers' Association are going to be asked by the Retail Merchants' Association to co-operate in the campaign which it has started to eliminate the bad check evil, and to obtain enactment of legislation providing in more explicit terms punishment for check kiting and the placing of bad checks in circulation.

A resolution calling for appointment of a special committee to wait upon the bankers' association was adopted yesterday at a luncheon held by the credit men's section of the merchants' association at the Loxham Cafe. The committee will be named in a day or two.

The November and December meetings of the credit men's section will be held in connection with dinners to be given at 6:30 o'clock on the second and fourth Thursday of each month.

TELLS IT TO THE PLANT JUICE MAN

Well Known Insurance Man Says One Bottle of Plant Juice Gave Him Relief.

The most important thing that persons can do for themselves, and about which they are often very neglectful, is to watch the condition of their stomach and bowels. The weary eyes, the bad breath, the frequent headaches the sore back, the lassitude and listlessness, the nights of sleeplessness, the growing irritableness, and nervousness, cold hands and feet, the lack of appetite—all these are monitors of a deranged stomach and bowels, and given a general name is nervous debility. Many remedies can be obtained, but the best, in the opinion of most people, is Plant Juice, the new herbal stomach remedy. Thousands of people have been benefited by the use of this great preparation.

Among these is Mr. George W. Duvall, who resides at No. 1827 East Federal street, Baltimore. I heard of this insurance agent of that city, and who has many friends and acquaintances here. He stated:

"For a number of years I have been troubled with my kidneys; I had such terrible pains that I could not bend over, and I did. I could not straighten up again, on account of the pain. My stomach was in such a weak condition that I could not eat my meals on account of the agony it caused me, and I dreaded to sit down to a meal; I could not sleep at night and felt entirely run down. I had taken many different medicines, and was under treatment for months at a time, but no permanent relief. I heard so much about Plant Juice and the numbers of people who had been restored to health, that I decided to give it a trial. One bottle gave me such wonderful relief that I can now eat anything without the slightest distress. I sleep peacefully and have no more trouble with my kidneys. I am glad to give this endorsement for Plant Juice."

The "Plant Juice" Man is at The People's Drug Store, corner of 7th and E Streets N. W., where he is daily meeting the local public, and introducing and explaining the merits of this remedy. On Saturday he will remain at the store until 10 P. M. to meet those who are unable to call during the day.—Adv.

SURG. GEN. BLUE NOT SERIOUSLY ILL

Public Health Service Denies Alarming Reports.

Reports from New York which reached Washington this morning that Surgeon General Victor Blue, of the Public Health Service, is desperately ill, and that Dr. Charles H. Mayo, of Rochester, Minn., had been called to operate on him, were denied today at the Public Health Service.

It was stated that Dr. Mayo had been in attendance at a convention of surgeons in New York, and that he called in Washington today merely to consult General Blue over a case of sciatica of long standing.

It was denied that there is any serious imminent danger in the condition of the Surgeon General.

Y. M. C. A. Member Chart Has Cards From All Parts

A chart bearing Y. M. C. A. membership cards, transferred from every State in this country and several foreign countries, has just been completed by Charles E. Miner, general secretary of the local association.

The chart was begun about a month ago, when Mr. Miner noticed the universal character of the transfers that were being received. He then began mounting a card from each State or foreign country until one from every State was numbered among the collection. There are no cards from European countries on the chart, due to the lack of travel to and from those warring nations. The Canal Zone, Mexico, and many South American countries are represented.
